WASHINGTON DISPATCHES

THE WORK OF THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONERS.

Examining Board's Report of the State of Affairs in the Philadelphia Postoffice. Complaint Against the Atlantic Coast Line—National News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The report of the civil service commission on the charges preferred against the board of civil service examiners of the Philadelphia postoffice, and Postmaster Harry, by the Philadelphia Civil Service Reform association, alleging fraud in the conduct of the examinations and the violation of the civil service rules in the appointments to fill vacancies, was made public to-day. The commission after a thorough investigation reach the conclusion that there is no truth in either of the charges or that any person or committee has assessed the employees of the postoffice for political purposes.

While admitting, they say, that it may possibly be the case that a majority of the appointees under civil service rules during Postmaster Harry's administration are Democrats, yet this can be accounted for by the fact that Republicans under the influence of partisan newspapers, and ideas believe that no Republicans would be appointed under a Democratic administration. This condition of affairs, the commission say, are not due to any defect in the rules, but the misrepresentation of the method of enforcing the law. The commission say that under Postmaster Huldschoff, who was a Republican and preceded in office Mr. Harry, the vast majority of the persons appointed under the civil service rules were Republicans, because Democrats generally believed that there would be no chance for their appointment under a Republican administration, and therefore, did not enter the examination. For the same reason Republicans did not enter the examination held after Mr. Harry assumed charge of the office, but the Democrats did, and consequently the vast majority of the new appointees were Democrats.

Interstate Work.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The Interstate commission has received a sworn complaint from R. B. Cooke, general passenger and freight agent of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railway company, against the Atlantic Coast line, composed of the Seaboard & Roanoke railroad, Wilmington & Weldon railroad, Wilmington & Columbia & Augusta railroad, and the Seaboard Air Line, made up of the Seaboard & Roanoke railroad, Raleigh & Gaston railroad, Raleigh & Augusta Air Line railroad, and the Carolina Central railroad. Mr. Cooke complains that these railroad lines, in their intercourse with the New York, Philadelphia & Norfolk road (the complaining company) are violating Section 3 of the Interstate law, which prohibits the giving of any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any person, company, firm, corporation or locality. The complainant avers that the railroads named under the organization of the Atlantic Coast line and the Seaboard Air line, refuse to give the complaining road reasonable, proper and equal facilities for the interchange of traffic between their lines; that while refusing such facilities to complainant the Atlantic Coast line and Seaboard Air line give to all complainant's competitors at Norfolk special and undue advantages, rates and facilities. The commission is asked to interpose for the protection of complainant. Numerous documents are submitted to sustain the complaint.

New Postage Stamps.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The postoffice department has arranged to issue, about September 15, the adhesive stamps and the stamps on the stamped envelopes with a change in the color. The main object is to make the color of these two classes of stamps correspond. The two-cent adhesive stamp will be changed in color from red to green and the three-cent stamp from green to vermilion. The designs will remain the same. The color of the two-cent stamp on the stamped envelope will be changed from red to green. The four-cent stamp from green to carmine; the five-cent stamp from brown to dark blue; the thirty-cent stamp from black to brown, and the ninety-cent stamp from carmine to purple. The designs will remain the same except that the head on the one, two, four and five-cent stamped envelopes will be re-engraved and will have a slightly different appearance from the old ones and the ornamentation around them will also be slightly different.

Enlisting Apprentices for the Navy.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The secretary of the navy has designated the United States steamer Michigan, the only American war vessel on the great lakes, to enlist apprentice boys for the navy. Hereafter all such enlistments have been made on "the seaboards," and young men along the lakes and the neighboring country have been virtually debarred from the privilege of such enlistment. Boys must be from fourteen to eighteen years of age, and are sent to the vessels of the training squadron at Newport, R. I., where they are instructed in English studies as well as in seamanship. The squadron makes a cruise to Europe each summer and to the West Indies each winter. After the course of training is completed they are sent to other men-of-war until they are twenty-one, and it is from this class that it is proposed to appoint warrant officers.

Prepayment of Interest.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Applications were received at the treasury department to-day for the prepayment of interest on $19,769,750 of outstanding United States bonds. The total amount of bonds upon which interest has been applied for to date is $38,003,300. Previous to the receipts of to-day's applications the greatest amount of bonds upon which prepayment of interest has been applied for in any one day has been eight and nine millions.

Calling on the President.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Senator Colquhoun of Georgia and Mr. H. W. Grady, of Atlanta, to-day visited the White House to see the president and arrange for the details of his trip to Atlanta. The president, however, did not come in from Oak View, and after spending a short time at the executive mansion with Col. Lamont they drove out and called on the president at his country home.

Custodian Appointed.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Michael Gallagher, of the District of Columbia, was today appointed custodian of Fort Thornburg, abandoned military reservation in Utah. Mr. Gallagher has the unusual record of having served continuously in the regular army for twenty-five years as a private and non-commissioned officer, having been discharged in 1880.

Seventy-Five Millions Stolen.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—A statement of the affairs of the Pacific railroads is being prepared by Maj. Reddington, of the department of justice, with a view to the prosecution of the directors of these companies. It is a well-known fact that the government and the roads have been plundered by the directors of about $75,000,000. It is also a fact that all this money could be recovered, provided the government took proper action, and it is now intimated that it intends doing so, and when the proper time arrives Maj. Reddington will produce the name of a man who acted as paymaster for Huntington and his agent, Sherrill, for services performed in Washington. The testimony of Huntington before the Pacific railroad commission in New York last April, in the opinion of officials of the department of justice, was sufficient to warrant the indictment of Huntington and his associates in bribery by the grand jury of this district. Steps were taken by the department early in May to indict Mr. Huntington, but the matter was postponed at the request of the Pacific railroad commission, and no further steps will be taken until congress meets and the commission had made its report.

AGAIN STARVING.

Another Winter of Destitution For the People of Labrador.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Aug. 15.—Sandwich Table, Rocky Porcupine and Esquimaux bays, on the Labrador coast, are again the scenes of the greatest destitution and starvation. The unfortunate people last winter passed through a terrible ordeal, such as human beings are seldom called upon to experience, and if the Newfoundland and Canadian governments do not come to the rescue in time the result of another winter can be imagined. Last winter the mercury went down to 40 degrees below zero. Numbers of the inhabitants became sick and emaciated from living on sea weed and rock ood, for which they had to travel in some cases many miles. One melancholy case is reported of the head of a family who from sheer hunger had become insane and attempted to eat his boots. Many of the inhabitants fed as from a plague-stricken land.

There is now no doubt that last winter's experience will be repeated. The outside world cannot know of the masses of suffering humanity who are perishing on these lone rocks, and it may be that succor and aid will come too late. The people are not represented in parliament, although taxed, and thus have no one to plead their cause. For nine months navigation is closed, and if anything is to be done it must be done quickly. The people now are actually selling their guns, bedding and skins to the traders for a few provisions. Hundreds of families would gladly leave if they had means to travel. Scores of stores and houses have, during the past few months, been broken into by the hungry hundreds, and provisions and merchandise taken, those who commit these deeds justifying them on the ground that they are starving.

Saratoga Races.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 15.—This is the eleventh regular day of the meeting. Weather delightful, track fast and attendance large. The grand stand presented a very pretty appearance, with the bright colored toilettes of the hundreds of ladies present. First race, three-fourths of a mile: Rata R. first, Geraldine second, Leo H. third. Time 1:10 3/4. Odds 4 to 1 against Rata R. Vincent rode the winner.

Second race, purse $500, mile and three-sixteenths: Bronsmarte first, Grey Cloud second, Orlanda third. Time 2:45. Odds even money. Vincent rode the winner.

Third race, the grand prize of Saratoga, all ages, mile and five furlongs: Kaloolah won a well contested race from Elkwood, Brown Duke third. Time 2:53 1/2. Vincent rode Kaloolah, making his third consecutive win to-day. The betting was 2 to 1 against Kaloolah.

Fourth race, purse $500, one mile and a furlong: Wyndon first, Alario second, Romp third. Time 1:57 3/4. Odds 3 to 1 against Wyndon. Blaylock rode the winner, and Vincent rode Alario.

Fifth race, steeplechase, two and one-half miles: Klug Troubler first, Wellington second, Beauchamp third. Time 4:22. Odds 5 to 1 against Klug Troubler. Warder rode the winner.

VICTIMS OF THE WRECK.

THE NUMBER IS NOW PLACED AT ONE HUNDRED.

Seventy-Five Bodies Have Been Recognized, While Fifteen More Await Identification.—Death of Miss Valdejo—Six Others Dying—What Caused the Wreck.

CHATTSWORTH, Ill., Aug. 15.—All the dead and all but seven of the wounded have been removed from this city and taken to their homes. A special train last night conveyed the dead and injured to Peoria. Among the seven now in Chatsworth is Mrs. R. H. Clark, of Rootstown, O. She is dying. Two of the others are also dying. The known dead, as given out by the coroner, is ninety, seventy-five of whom have been identified and claimed by friends. But the coroner admits that his figures are below the real number, and as several of the injured taken away by their friends have since died, it is more than likely that one hundred people lost their lives from the terrible disaster.

Miss Josie Valdejo, of Peoria, died at 9 o'clock a. m. Five minutes before she breathed her last she felt the approaching pangs of dissolution and stroked the hand of her cousin as if in thanks for his patient care. Then her breath came in short gasps, and with a smile on her face and a movement of the lips, as though she were trying to murmur the word "Mother," she passed away. The occurrence had a most depressing effect upon the rest of the sufferers in the room. There was another touching scene a little later. While the physicians were dressing the wounds of Mrs. Clark, of Ohio, and the nurses who surrounded her bed, expected every moment to be her last, the poor woman moaned and called piteously for her "Joey," whom she had been led to believe was safe and well at Piper City, instead of cold and stiff in death in the railroad station across the way. The little fellow was recognized at the last moment, just as he was about to be put on a car with other unknown bodies.

Adam Schaumburg, of Buffalo, passed a restless night and is worse this morning. Young Waters, of the Peoria watch company, and Homer Bond, of Colchester, are also rapidly growing worse. Mrs. Clark, of Ohio, cannot live through the day. Mrs. Hazen and Miss Alter, two cousins from Fort Madison, Ia., will survive another week. Twenty nurses from Fairbury took turns in watching the seven sufferers throughout the night, and physicians moved from one cot to another from dusk to daybreak.

Nothing of importance has been developed before the state railroad commissioners, who adjourned their investigation till Tuesday next. It is still an open question whether the disaster was caused by train wreckers for the purposes of robbery, or whether it was due to negligence of the company. The railroad company is, of course, industriously endeavoring to establish the former theory to avoid the heavy liabilities which would be incurred were it proven that carelessness of employees was to blame. The coroner's jury, which made a partial investigation last night, holds to the theory of deliberately planned wreck; but one of the jury, W. W. Sears, the postmaster here, scouts the idea.

HEAVY FIRE LOSS.

Pittsburg Visited By a Destructive Blaze—Loss $750,000.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 15.—The Masonic hall on Fifth avenue, Hamilton's building, and Schmitt & Friday's building, adjoining either side, and both magnificent nine-story structures, and the Dispatch building, were gutted by fire last night, which originated in the Masonic Hall. The Western Associated Press headquarters were immediately across the street from the Dispatch building, and so great was the heat that the operators abandoned their wires. The printers in the Dispatch office escaped half suffocated with smoke. The newspaper's building was not destroyed, but the interior of the office was badly damaged. The fire was under control at 2:30 a. m.

The Penny Press offices were also badly damaged. The total losses are placed at $750,000; partly insured.

John Keefe, of Allegheny, while assisting the firemen, fell from the roof of a building on Virgin alley and was fatally injured.

The Masonic hall was the oldest building on Fifth avenue, and was built over fifty years ago. Thirty-one lodges met in the hall, and all their equipments were totally destroyed.

Fire in a Saw Mill.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 15.—Derrance & Brothers' large saw mills at Bristol, Pa., were entirely destroyed by fire this morning. Loss on building, stock and machinery is about $25,000; insurance not ascertained. The fire is supposed to be of incendiary origin.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Col. W. W. Burns, assistant commissary general of subsistence, has been put under arrest. The exact nature of the accusations is unknown, but it is intimated that the trouble is of a domestic nature, and that the charges are serious.

Indians on the War Path.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 15.—The White river Utes, under the celebrated Chief Colorado, are on the war path. A fight occurred yesterday at Meeker. The Whites fired on the Indians, killing one. Washington has been telegraphed for aid.

WOOL MARKET.

A Pressure to Sell Has Caused Prices to Become Weaker.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Bradstreet, in its summary of the wool market, says that all of the eastern wool markets continue in buyers' favor. The pressure to sell has been strong in some quarters, and prices are generally weaker. For many descriptions they are quite one cent per pound lower than at the beginning of the month. The decline has stimulated purchases to a certain extent, inquiries are frequent and more activity is apparent than during the greater part of July. Still the taking of the mills do not largely anticipate future requirements.

Orders for spring weight fabrics are not yet numerous, and the prevailing inclination of buyers is to pursue the "hand-to-mouth" policy a little longer. In the country wool is rather firmer than on the seaboard, but without special animation. Large accumulations are reported at some points in the interior. At San Francisco receipts have been considerably larger than last year to this time. The American Wool Reporter says that "the stocks of wool in the eastern markets are undoubtedly small for this season of the year, the great bulk being held in the west at prices too high for the operations of eastern dealers." It believes, however, that the present holders will be unable to stand out much longer. The Boston Journal of Commerce thinks that less Montana wool will be consigned to Boston this year than heretofore, basing this opinion on the statement of growers who did better last year on shipments to Chicago than to Boston.

The Boston market is weak, with a fair amount of business in progress at recently reduced quotations. The decline reported last week in Michigan X sales, which were made to a considerable extent at thirty cents a pound, has extended to other descriptions. Fine wools throughout the list have been sold at concessions, and medium sorts are also weaker. Many holders are asking more than they can command at present. The stringency of the money market has something to do with the continued dullness in wool, and the uncertainty about the result of the season's manufacturing operations no less. There is, however, more inquiry for supplies than hitherto.

The sales of the week at Boston have amounted to 3,618,000 pounds, as compared with 2,495,000 a week ago, and 2,963,400 in the corresponding week last year.

At Philadelphia the wool trade situation shows little change. Manufacturers are buying cautiously and chiefly for immediate wants. Fine wools are neglected and weak. Other grades show no quotable change, but offerings are light except of territory wools, which are in comparatively good supply. The week's sales foot up a total of 671,000 pounds, against 740,000 pounds for the same week last year.

SENATOR RIDDLEBERGER IN JAIL.

He Is Sentenced to Ten Days' Imprisonment, and Fined $25 for Contempt.

WOODSTOCK, Va., Aug. 15.—Senator Riddleberger got himself into pretty scrape here Friday, and spent the night amid the discomforts of a squalid county jail. The senator was interested in a case on trial in the county court which had some local political significance. Judge Newman, who tried the case, was no friend of Senator Riddleberger. In fact some of the papers hereabouts have referred to the two as "bitter personal enemies." No one was surprised, therefore, when the verdict in the case on trial was exactly the reverse of what Riddleberger desired. But everybody was very much surprised, and, moreover, very much excited at the spirit in which the senator took the verdict, and his peculiar manner of calling public attention to his anger.

At Riddleberger's suggestion the prisoner who figured in the case was hauled through the streets of the town with a placard around his neck, containing some pretty severe and caustic reflections on the judge. Troops of amused people followed the prisoner. Finally one of the judge's friends went to tell him what was going on. Ten minutes afterward policemen were running around looking for Senator Riddleberger. He was found and summoned before his old enemy to answer for contempt of court. There was a tumult on the streets around the court house, and excited people clamored at the doors for admission. After he had given Mr. Riddleberger an opportunity to make an explanation, which did not appear to be satisfactory, the judge fined the senator $25 and committed him to jail for ten days. Protests and further attempts at explanation were in vain. Judge Newman left the bench in anger, and Riddleberger was hurried off to a cell.

The excitement was tremendous as the news spread around town, and partisanship ran rampant. Riddleberger's friends swore they would get him out before midnight if they had to burn the jail to do it. Upon hearing these threats Judge Newman's friends vowed they would defend the jail by force if necessary, and many of them volunteered their services to the sheriff. All Riddleberger's influence availed him nothing in his efforts for release. As darkness settled down, the senator was making a fair meal off prison rations and preparing to make himself comfortable for the night. He was very anxious that his friends should not step beyond the bounds of law in manifesting their sympathy for him.

LATER—A dispatch from Woodstock, Va., states that United States Senator Riddleberger, who was sentenced by Judge Newman, of the county court, to pay a fine of $25 and be imprisoned for ten days for contempt of court, was released from jail by a mob. The jailer made but little resistance.

Killed By a Thief.

PARM, Ky., Aug. 15.—E. C. Foster, of Millersburg, was watching his hog pen for thieves about 8 o'clock this morning, when a negro came along with a sack of stolen grass seed. Mr. Foster asked the negro what he had. The thief replied by shooting him, the bullet passing entirely through the head, just behind the ears, causing a fatal wound. The negro has been arrested.

EVERYTHING was quiet at Morehead Saturday. The soldiers not only took the guns and pistols from every man they could find with arms Thursday afternoon, but searched every house, and took therefrom all pistols, guns and other weapons they could find. It is believed all these arms, which are quite numerous, will be turned over to the State. There is no trouble apprehended now, so long as the disturbing element are kept without their favorite weapons.

Saves the Frankfort Capital: "Judge A. E. Cole, supported by the brainy young Commonwealth's Attorney, James H. Sallee, is moving right along with his court in the empire of Rowan. Six indictments have been returned, and the Judge has ordered fifty jurors summoned from the neighboring county of Fleming. The court has been continued for thirty days longer, and Judge Cole announces that he will extend it as much longer as may be necessary to get through with the business. It begins to look now like things will soon be straightened out in Rowan."

At a Fair Salary.

The President Saturday appointed Major Henry T. Stanton, of Frankfort, and Rev. W. J. The compensation is $8 per day and actual expenses.

Miss MILLIE WAHLROB died Saturday night at half past 11 o'clock at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles F. Walther, in the Fifth ward, at the age of fifteen years. She had been ill about seven weeks with hasty consumption. The remains were taken to her former home at Higginsport this morning for interment. Funeral this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the M. E. Church at that place.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "A pretty event of last week was the garden party given Wednesday evening by Mrs. Frank Alter to her sons, in honor of their guests, Messrs. George and James Barbour, of Maysville, Ky. The early part of the evening was spent on the bright, green lawn that spreads like a seamless carpet in front of this spacious and perfectly appointed Avondale home. Later the young people assembled in the drawing-room and progressive euchre was enjoyed until the hour of delightful refreshments. Friday evening the same party, kindly chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Alter, visited "Rome Under Nero."

Barn Burned.

During the heavy thunder storm last night the barn of Samuel Gray, one mile north of Aberdeen, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground, the barn and contents being a total loss. Three valuable horses, which were in the building at the time, were entirely consumed by the flames, besides other valuable property. Mr. Gray's loss will reach $1,200 or $1,500. It has not been learned whether he had any insurance.

Steamboats and Wire Ropes.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "The management of Coney Island is, to all appearances, playing in a streak of hard luck. Several days ago the wire rope stretched across the river to the Kentucky hills for the performance of Prof. Weitzman was caught by the smokestacks of the Maysville steamer City of Nashville, and was torn from its fastenings. A new wire was produced and stretched, it was thought, at a height sufficient to allow all the boats to pass under in safety."

"Last Friday night the steamer B. S. Rhea, on a down trip, caught the wire, tearing it from its fastenings and snapping the guy ropes asunder. For some reason only known to themselves the employees of the boat, instead of waiting until she was stopped, seized axes and cut the wire to pieces, letting it fall in the river. "The management of the Island are indignant over the haste of the river people to totally destroy property without apparent reason. The wire is 2,750 feet in length, and is quite an item of expense, when a new one is bought every other day."

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MINERVA.

Our little town was filled with surprise and grief upon learning of the death of Mrs. Margaret Gibson, who had been afflicted with consumption for some time past. According to her own request no funeral was preached. This makes three deaths which have occurred in the family in two years. She leaves a husband and three daughters to mourn her loss. The sorrow-stricken family has the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

Cincinnati's Mayor Married.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 15.—His Honor, Amor Smith, Jr., this morning surprised his friends and the community generally by taking unto himself a wife. The bride was Miss Ida Bennett, of No. 612 West Seventh street, who has been for a long time employed by the John Shillito company. She is a lady of beauty, refinement and culture, and will grace and beautify the home of the chief magistrate of the city in a manner to gratify the mayor's family and charm his friends.

Another Priest in Trouble.

New YORK, Aug. 15.—The Tribune says that Archbishop Corrigan has demanded of Rev. Dr. Curran an explanation of the latter's appearance with Dr. McGlynn at a public meeting of the United Labor party. Dr. Curran was not penitent and on being requested by the Archbishop to apologize for his action, refused to do so. He was then warned not to repeat the offense. It is understood that Dr. Curran is trying to force the Archbishop to take extreme measures in his case, in order to make it appear that the excommunication of Dr. McGlynn was purely on account of his political views.

Eating Poison Cakes.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 15.—Twenty-three persons residing in the Seventeenth ward, this city, are reported seriously ill from the effects of poison. The cause is supposed to have been poisoned substances contained in cheap cakes eaten by the victims. Night before last and yesterday a number of families residing on Forty-Eighth street and vicinity, purchased and ate some oatmeal cakes. The cakes were sold by L. G. Logue. The attending physicians state that the illness of their patients was caused by eating some compound containing a poisonous irritant. The cake will be analyzed.

All on Account of Beer.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Aug. 15.—Constable Potts, and an assistant named Hamilton, having a warrant for the arrest of Thomas Hardy, in whose barn they had found a keg of beer, served the same upon him as he stood talking with a friend on the street. Hardy refused to go with them, whereupon the officers drew their revolvers. Potts fired three times at Hardy, one ball penetrating his hand, another his right side, while the third struck a bystander, severely wounding him. Potts and Hamilton are in jail.

A Captain's Fortunate Discovery.

Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, plying between Atlantic City and N. Y., had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly affected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board the schooner. Free trial bottles of this standard remedy at the drug stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. ROWAN CIRCUIT COURT.

Indictments for Murder Against the Alleged Slayers of Craig Tolliver.

The news from Morehead is that the grand jury has returned three more indictments for murder, one each against Hiram Pigman and A. P. Perry for killing the desperado leader, Craig Tolliver, and others on that fatal day in June, when the terrible battle raged in the streets of Morehead. The other indictment was against Bump Mannin for the killing of the Logan boys (John and Will), which occurred on the 8th day of June. Several days ago Pigman and Perry got an idea that the grand jury would indict them, and they skipped to Huntington, W. Va., where they have been arrested by the local authorities. Deputy Sheriff A. J. White and another Deputy have gone to Huntington with a bench warrant for them. They will be brought back to Morehead, where it is the intention to try them during the present term of the court.

What will be the outcome of Pigman and Perry's indictment, arrest and trial no one can at present surmise.

Z. T. Young, bitterly denies the printed statements that he had been in Fleming County for the purpose of selecting jurors favorable to his cause, and says that he was only visiting relatives in that county.

Every thing at Morehead is still quiet, no uneasiness being felt so long as the State Guards are on hand to keep the citizens in possession. The soldiers carefully guard the town all the time, and a surprise from any body would be next to an impossibility.

There have been sixteen convictions so far, mostly for carrying concealed weapons, and breaches of the peace. The jail, which is a small one, is full of these parties who have been convicted.

The trial of Z. T. Young, Allie Young, Green Mannin and John Trumbo for conspiring to kill Howard Logan will begin to-morrow. Hons. W. J. Hendrick and W. A. Sudduth, of Fleming, have been engaged to defend the accused.

The grand jury has reported seventeen indictments at the present term, and the good work still goes on.

Riotous Negroes.

The trial of the gang of negroes, charged with riotous conduct at Washington on election day, ended Saturday evening. Thirteen of the accused were held over by Judge Coons, in the sum of $200 each to answer the charge at the next term of the Circuit Court. The names of those held over are: Joe White, Enos Barnes, Harrison Vance, Burt Jordan, Thornton Allen, James Payne, Wm. Whaley, Jas. Clemons, Thomas Riggs, Robert Langhorne, Wm. Jackson, Bob Garrison and James Fields. Robert Langhorne executed bond and was released. The rest were sent to jail in default of bail.

Cutting Affray on Cabin Creek.

A serious cutting affray took place on Cabin Creek Saturday night. Nat Bly went to the home of his brother-in-law, Thomas Allshire, and began stoning the house. Allshire left and went to C. C. Degman's for assistance. Mr. Degman returned with him, and attempted to play the part of peace-maker, but Bly wouldn't be quieted. He was on the war-path, and made at Allshire with the intention, it is said, of ending his brother-in-law's life then and there. He didn't succeed, however, in carrying out his wicked designs, as Allshire turned and plunged a knife into his abdomen, letting out some of the intestines. Dr. J. A. Mitchell was sent for and dressed the wound. It is reported that Bly, notwithstanding his injuries, skipped to Ohio last night. Allshire acted in self-defense, and no arrests have been made.

LENA WILKES won the stake race for four-year-olds at the Harrodsburg fair last week—best time 2:33. She is entered in the 2:35 class to be trotted here this week.

JOHN SUNS and George Ewing became involved in a difficulty yesterday which resulted in SUNS' receiving a dangerous and perhaps fatal wound. He was struck on the head with a rock, and it is thought his skull is fractured. Dr. Owens dressed the wound. Ewing is in custody, and will have a hearing Wednesday morning.

THE news has reached Augusta that John Neaves, who murdered his father a few weeks ago, in Bracken County, and who is still at large, shot another man last week, by the name of Buckley, not far from Falmouth. The shooting took place in a tobacco patch. Buckley was in a posse who was hunting for Neaves. Neaves is still at large. The community near Falmouth is very much excited.

SURVEYORS are engaged in laying off a town on the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad at the month of Twelve Mile Creek in Campbell County, to be known as Huntington Heights. A syndicate interested in this move has purchased the Shank, Crow and Eagan farms which contain about three hundred acres altogether. Mr. Huntington has also purchased a large tract in the same locality and will, it is said, erect workshops and other buildings for his new road.

THERE was no Circuit Court at Morehead to-day, Judge Cole having adjourned from Saturday until to-morrow. This was done in order that the Fleming Circuit Court might convene to-day and adjourn over until next week.

THE Cincinnati Commercial Gazette says: "R. H. Park, an aged blacksmith living in Chester, Mason County, Ky., arrived in the city Friday in search of Jennie Park, his eighteen-year-old daughter, who has been missing for the past three weeks. The girl came to this city to look for work on the 20th of last month, and has not been heard from since. She is supposed to be with an acquaintance named Oora Dirst, who is from the same place and who also works here."

Right of Way Settled.

The right of way for the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad through the property of James H. Rogers, proprietor of the Limestone distillery, has been settled. The arbitrators, Messrs. W. H. Cox, Ed. Mitchell and Dr. G. M. Williams, to whom the matter was submitted last week, rendered their award Saturday evening, allowing Mr. Rogers, $8,393.32—$1,000 for the land and $7,393.32 for damages and for the cost of removing the buildings to another location. The railroad company gets the land lying between the river and a point one hundred feet south of the distillery—about five acres. Mr. Rogers retains the buildings, machinery &c., and will remove them to some other site.

ENGLAND'S FOOD SUPPLY.

GREAT BRITAIN DEPENDENT UPON THE AMERICAN MARKETS.

But Very Little Prospects of Indian Wheat Being Placed in Competition With Our Own Article—Asking the Queen for a Receipt—Foreign News.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—A comparison of various reports recently submitted to parliament bearing upon the question of England's food supply, gives the impression that in spite of their hopeful tone John Bull still suffers an agony of helpless rage at being compelled to purchase as largely as he is yet doing from American markets. He makes what comfort in depreciating the quality of the importations, whether wheat, cheese, meats or fruits, and fears the deterioration of Britons from feeding upon the inferior viands that, together with the horrible Yankee climate he believes, have so fearfully lowered the moral, mental and physical condition of their descendants in America.

Buying American wheat is to the proud Englishman only a little less obnoxious than purchasing that commodity from the wily Russian knocking at the gates of India, and it is to the last named country that its masters look for relief from their galling dependence upon America for a supply of that all-important cereal. But after years of waiting and enormous expenditure all that has been attained toward that relief is embodied in the report of Agricultural Director Smeaton, the concluding portions of which are ridiculously feeble as contrasted with the rose-colored accounts embraced in the report of the future of the Indian wheat trade.

According to the latter America is to be undersold first and foremost, and afterward, through inability to compete brought to the brink of bankruptcy or at least reduced to such a state of humility that the American government will hasten to abolish all tariffs and beg the British manufacturer to pour his goods into American markets at his own price, a consummation long and earnestly prayed for.

Mr. Smeaton says that the generally conceived opinion as to the inferiority of Indian wheat is wholly erroneous, as a close examination will show that it is not of such poor quality as experts have always considered it, and that when its real merits are acknowledged and its market advanced it may be grown at a profit, which, even he concludes, however, is not the case.

His remedy is to provide increased railway facilities and improved methods of handling the crop, but it is doubtful whether capitalists can be persuaded to furnish the necessary funds, much as they might desire to ante-date the millennium when the devoted American producer shall be shut out of British markets and England's possessions shall feed England's people to the satisfaction of everybody except the farmers at home, who are actually so inconsiderate as to clamor for protection, without which, as they assert, farming in England will soon become one of the lost arts.

Asking the Queen's Interference. LONDON, Aug. 15.—In consequence of the refusal of Mr. Matthews, the home secretary, to interfere in the case of the Jew, Lipkai, who is to be hanged on Monday for the murder of a Jewess in this city, Lipkai's solicitor has telegraphed the queen imploring her to reprieve the condemned man. The solicitor asserts that Lipkai is innocent, and asks for the reprieve to enable him to establish the fact.

Fought Fifty-One Rounds. LONDON, Aug. 15.—A prize fight took place at Birmingham yesterday between two English pugilists named Cossette and Cooper. The men fought fifty-one rounds, when the battle was interrupted by the police, who put everybody present to flight. Both men were badly mauled, but neither is able to claim a victory, owing to the manner in which the fight was stopped.

Burgling Burglars. PARIS, Aug. 15.—The office of minister of foreign affairs was entered by burglars last night and several hundred francs in money were stolen. The thieves became alarmed before they had completed their search for plunder and fled, leaving a bundle of bank notes undiscovered.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—District Attorney Martine has determined to make an investigation into the methods of Henry S. Ives to ascertain if any of the operations conducted by him were criminal in their nature. The Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton has something to show for all the money the firm has used. They have spent all they had for the improvement of their properties, but when they tried to get a large sum out of them they slipped up."
